5-minute Activities: Skills practice

Have you got 5 minutes to spare? Not sure what to do? As the name of the session suggests, we will go through a few short skills based activities which require a minimum of planning. We will also look at how and why they might benefit our learners (and be a bit of fun).

5-minute Activities: Grammar and Vocabulary

Following up from the previous session, we will move on to do some 5-minute grammar and vocabulary activities to warm the class up, fill time or provide some quick and easily prepared practice. Again we will also spend a little time analysing them and discussing why they might be useful for (us and) our learners.

Matthew (Mat) Smith is an English teacher and teacher trainer from Southend in Essex. He has been teaching English since 2004 and has worked in the Czech Republic, Spain, Turkey and England. Matthew is CELTA and DELTA qualified and also holds various qualifications from IHWO (International House World Organisation) including the IHCYLT and IHVYL. He now works as the EAL Specialist at ISB (International School of Brno), is a speaking examiner for Cambridge and tutors on a number of teacher development courses in the Czech Republic, abroad and online.
