

All students of English are cordially invited to the following lectures given by our colleagues participating in the International Week 2018.

All lectures take place on Tuesday 2nd October:

8.45 – 10.15, P49

A NEW CURRICULUM, A NEW WAY OF THINKING

Introducing a new school curriculum in Norway and its implications for teachers.

Jane Ekstam (Norway/England)

11.30 – 12.15, P52

ACADEMIC DIFFICULTIES IN CHILDREN WITH DEVELOPMENTAL LANGUAGE IMPAIRMENT

How developmental impairment affects children's performance at school.

Eva Aquilar (Spain)

11.30 – 13.00, P49

TEACHING ENGLISH AS A LINGUA FRANCA

The concept of English as lingua franca in the multilingual world of today.

Elwira Lewandowska (Poland)

15.00 – 15.45, P31

BEAUTY WILL SAVE THE WORLD, ESPECIALLY IN THE REALMS OF STORY, LANGUAGE, SYMBOL, FILM AND MUSIC.

Consideration of beauty and ugliness in society through the lense of the grand story of the Mexican-American musician, Sixto Rodriguez.

Michael Palmer (USA)

We look forward to seeing you there.