Genius loci ...

Dear colleagues,

The Institute of Foreign Languages of the Faculty of Education, Palacký University would like to invite you to participate in the

INTERNATIONAL WEEK OF THE FACULTY OF EDUCATION AND OF THE INSTITUTE OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES

held in Olomouc, Czech Republic, 30 September – 4 October 2019.

In the course of the event International Week we would like to give our students and teachers an opportunity to broaden their horizons through contact with professionals from various Czech as well as international educational institutions. We therefore welcome any prospective participants who would like to share a lecture or workshop or present their research on a relevant topic of their professional interest and use the networking possibilities the event offers.

The event will be accompanied by a social and cultural programme organized by the Faculty of Education for all participants. You will find the official invitation from the Faculty of Education, including the tentative programme and practical information here. More activities, including workshops or lectures for English language students and an informal lunch or dinner meeting, will be organized by the Institute of Foreign Languages.

If you prefer to come just for part of the week, please indicate that in your application form. When filling in the title of your contribution, please specify whether it is meant for any students of the Faculty of Education or for English language students specifically. Presentations for the English language students of the Institute of Foreign Languages will be scheduled individually within or outside the official programme, according to the participants' interests and possibilities.

We are looking forward to meeting you in Olomouc.

Best wishes,

Organizing Committee
